Good morning from my home to yours. Peace be with you.

This weekend we hear the Gospel of Jesus calming the stormy seas where the disciples were in the boat and they were afraid when Jesus approached them. Jesus then calls Peter out onto the water to walk with him, he did for a moment but became afraid when he saw the winds and the waves crashing upon him.

This is also National Vocations Awareness Week, looking and celebrating people's vocation to: marriage, single life, religious life and ordained ministry. This week the Priests of the Rockhampton Diocese gathered in Emu Park at 'The Haven'. It's been a very special time and a very sacred time where we share and reflect upon that ministry that we share with you in very special ways.

I remember my own ordination in 2004 and reflect upon the gathering of family and friends and the wider community of the Diocese. Very much so, the Priesthood is a gathering of families and people, recognising and naming God in the midst of celebrations and joyful times, difficult times, the ordinary times; I think that's what Priesthood means for me.

The privilege of being allowed to share those moments with not just my own family but with other families and friends and people in our community. I ask you to continue to pray for the Priests of the Diocese, to pray for your own families, that others too, might be able to recognise that call for them whatever it might be for them, married life, single life, religious or ordained ministry as a priest. What you need to be as a priest is to be able to be with people, to listen to them and share the sacred moments.

Thank you for allowing me to share those moments with each of you.

Thank you for the faith that you share and continue to share with and within your own families. We pray that God continue to guide us all as we journey and share the vocation that God calls each of us to.

Peace be with you from my home to yours, God Bless.

Come Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful,
enkindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit
and they shall be created.
And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, Who instruct the hearts of the faithful
by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise,
and ever to rejoice in your consolation.
Through Christ, our Lord. Amen
