PARISH LEADERSHIP TEAM

Leadership Reflection Weekly Video - Denis Murphy

Greetings everyone, and peace be with you. Father Matthew will be back next week, and it is my turn to do this week's message. This week the gospel comes from Matthew and it is all about forgiveness. We are told that we must forgive to be forgiven. We need to be ever mindful of the words in The Lord's Prayer when we ask to be forgiven as we forgive others. Jesus gives us the example when he told the good thief "You will be with me in paradise today"

In our own daily lives we as Parents, grandparents, or sons or daughters can see how we are often called to forgive our children and other family members as they fail, and how in return, they forgive us as we fail. Just as our heavenly father pick us up and sets us on our way again, we are called to do the same for our children, siblings, and others. Not just once but as many times as necessary.

The simple message that the gospel gives us is not to hang on the hurts and disappointments but to get past them so that we are open to be forgiven as we forgive others.

I hope you are all well and keeping Covid safe. So, let that be our prayer today.

Peace be with you from my home to yours.

Denis Murphy

LEADERSHIP REPORT

The pastoral conversion of the Parish community in the service of the evangelizing mission of the Church

Introduction

The ecclesiological reflection of the Second Vatican Council, together with the considerable social and cultural changes of recent decades, has resulted in various Particular Churches having to reorganize the manner in which the pastoral care of Parish communities is assigned. This has made it possible to initiate new experiences, enhancing the dimension of communion and implementing, under the guidance of pastors, a harmonious synthesis of charisms and vocations at the service of the proclamation of the Gospel, which better corresponds to the demands of evangelization today.

Pope Francis, at the beginning of his Petrine ministry, recalled the importance of "creativity", meaning thereby "seeking new ways", that is "seeking how best to proclaim the Gospel"; in respect of this, the Holy Father concluded by saying, "the Church, and also the Code of Canon Law, gives us innumerable possibilities, much freedom to seek these things" .

The situations outlined in the following Instruction, represent a valuable opportunity for pastoral conversion that is essentially missionary. Parish communities will find herein a call to go out of themselves, offering instruments for reform, even structural, in a spirit of communion and collaboration, of encounter and closeness, of mercy and solicitude for the proclamation of the Gospel.

HOLY LAND COLLECTION - SUNDAY SEPT 13th 2020

The annual collection for the support of the church in the Holy Land normally takes place on Good Friday. This year, due to the closure of churches around the world during Holy Week because of the COVID-19 Pandemic, Pope Francis moved the date for this collection to Sunday September 13th to coincide with the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross on September 14th. This collection promotes the missionary work of the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. Parishes, schools, orphanages and medical centres throughout the Holy Land also rely on assistance from this collection. It is also used to maintain over 70 churches and shrines associated with the life of Jesus. Last year, Australian Catholics donated $1.3 million to this cause, despite tough economic times, rural droughts and the increasing cost of living. This year, we are again facing great challenges due to COVID-19, but your generosity would again be greatly appreciated. Please remember the Christians of the Holy Land on Sunday September 13th and please also keep them in your prayers.

We Pray for those who are:
