SUNDAY 8 NOVEMBER 2020

Fr Matthew's Weekly Video Message

Hello from my home to yours, peace be with you.

We hear in the Book of Wisdom this weekend that wisdom is found by those who look, and it goes on to say that understanding will grow for those who watch out for wisdom.

How do we find wisdom?

I think wisdom is found by listening. It is a constant search for purpose and meaning in our lives as we hear in our Psalm that 'My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God, for you I long'. Life is that search for meaning and purpose. Our Scriptures then go on to say in our Gospel about the wise ones and the foolish ones; the ones who are ready and awake, and those that fell asleep and were weary and lost sight of that search. They gave up and when the Bride Groom came they weren't ready. Sometimes we are not ready to listen, we are not able to listen. We are either too busy, too worried, too anxious, too frightened, too concerned about what might happen. Listening is certainly something very hard in our world today. As we hear our Gospel may we actually also hear it also in our hearts, may we listen so that wisdom and understanding might be given to each of us, that wisdom to be able to, in that search and that longing for God, be able to find in the depths of our hearts the silence and that quiet space that we all need in the midst of the noise in our world.

As we listen again to those words in the Psalm 'My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God, for you I long', may that longing be in the silence and the quiet of our hearts, in the quiet of our prayers, in the time that we take to step back from the world. May wisdom be found by us all in those quiet moments. As we search for meaning and purpose, wisdom and understanding, may this be a place where we recognise and listen to our God.

God Bless, from my home to yours, peace be with you.
