Fr Matthews Weekly Video Message Link

Peace be with you, from my home to yours.

This week in St Joseph's Cathedral, Bishop Michael ordained as deacon, Ashwin Acharya for the Diocese of Rockhampton. It was a wonderful celebration for our parish community and our whole diocese. Reverend Ashwin went to Sacred Heart School then on to St Brendan's College and then taught at St Ursula's College for a time before he went to the Holy Spirit Seminary in Brisbane. It was a wonderful occasion and God willing; he will be ordained a priest in six months' time for our Diocese.

The Cathedral is the 'Mother Church' of the Diocese and we remember all of those who have gone before Rev Ashwin and have been ordained to the presbyterate to serve the people of God. Rev Ashwin has said yes to God in a very special way and has placed his life before God and said he will be at the service to the Church and its people.

This weekend we celebrate the great 'Feast of Christ the King' and in our Parish Community we continue to see people saying yes to God. Gordon Gould will be baptised as an adult and with Luke Shepherd, will be Confirmed and receive First Holy Communion. Lakey Nash and Chelsea Panochini will also be baptised. They and their families, are in a very real way also celebrating and putting Christ first in their lives by celebrating and living the sacraments they celebrate. We hear in our psalm today: 'The Lord is my Shepherd...'. God shepherds us and guides us along the path, leads us to green pastures, allows us rest, in restful waters he leads us and revives our drooping spirits. It's a wonderful prayer, psalm and an image of a God with us, as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King.

There are so many who put Christ in the midst of their lives and put Christ at service of their families, their workplaces, their neighbourhoods. Thank you living and doing this: putting Christ first in your lives. This celebration of Christ the King, is a reminder that Christ continues to guide us, bless us and to be with us. May he continue to shepherd us as we journey, especially in these days.

From my home to your peace be with you, God Bless.

Fr Matthew
