SUNDAY 29 NOVEMBER 2020 FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Fr Matthew's Weekly Video Message

Hello from my home to yours, peace be with you.

This weekend we celebrate the first Sunday of Advent. Christmas is nearly upon us in a few weeks' time, and Advent is our time of preparation for this.

What an extraordinary year it has been and yet how quickly it has gone, how slowly, at different times too, but now as we prepare for this great Feast of Christmas we have been asked to slow down, to stop and to be awake as our Gospel says this weekend.

St Paul also says to us in our second reading to be thankful for the things that we have and for the people that are around us.

As we reflect and prepare for Christmas maybe we could:

Be more awake to what is going on around us and listen and hear each other.

We could be more present to each other.

Maybe being awake means to slow down and aware of each other;

To be grateful and thankful for those in our lives,

To be thankful for the blessings that we have received and

To be thankful for the blessings that you are to each other.

As we take this time and reflect upon this journey of preparation in Advent, we need not worry about tomorrow, or about yesterday, but listen and be with each other today.

Perhaps that's what our Gospel is saying in staying awake: simply to listen to each other, to be aware of each other and be thankful for that gift of each other and importantly to allow Christ to be there with you in those relationships, friendships and our families at this time.

God Bless, peace be with you from my home to yours.
