Fr Matthew's Weekly Video Message

Hello from my home to yours, peace be with you.

This weekend there's a decided shift in the stories & tempo of our Gospel and Scripture readings. There's a real sense of expectation, excitement and joy.

This weekend is the third Sunday of Advent and we light the third candle which is a different coloured candle, its pink, a lighter colour than the other candles, signifying a change in tempo and a change in pace of that expectation of getting ready for Christmas, its coming close, it's getting near.

In the Psalm you hear the words 'my soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord' and then in the Gospel John the Baptist preparing the way.

In our wider world and community, there's a real sense of excitement and change too as borders have begun to open, people have begun to gather again with families. On the news many have seen the different families gathering at airports and embracing, after borders have been allowed to open. Too, there is a real sense of expectation and time of change as vaccines have begun to be prepared and as we have seen, some places even been administered.

We continue to pray with and for the healing of our world.

We place our world and our lives before God, and remember that as people of faith God is at the centre of who we are.

We keep our families in our prayers as they travel to and from gathering places over this time. May they travel safely and may that sense of joy and expectation hold each of us as we prepare for Christmas.

From my home to yours peace be with you.

Fr Matthew
