12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 20 JUNE 2021

Fr Ashwin Acharya

Was born 22nd October 1991 in Canberra, after his family moved from India to Australia. In 1996, they moved to Yeppoon where he grew up and was part of the Sacred Heart Parish. He attended Sacred Heart Primary School (attended St Anthony's in Rockhampton for one year), and St Brendan's College.

Of his discernment journey, Fr Ashwin has said that it: "eventually converged in a single intention to be a missionary, to serve others by whatever means he could, to be "all things to all people" so that, whether explicitly or implicitly, the Gospel might take root in their hearts."

It was around this time (while working at St Ursula's College), that the Priesthood became a serious option for his future. In 2015 he left for Brisbane and entered the Seminary. Of his time at the seminary, he says: "The past 6 years have been rich, challenging, and very fruitful, garnered by the profound support of so many people. I thank God, and all of you, for 'drawing the Priesthood' out of me. May God be glorified in this, always. Amen."

It is great to have you with us this weekend in your home parish Fr Ashwin.

Many blessings for the future.

God bless.
