THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

“This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.” - Jn 6:57-58

The worshipping communities of Sacred Heart, Yeppoon and Mary Immaculate, Emu Park acknowledge the Darumbal People the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather and pay respect to their elders: past, present, and emerging. For we too are one in land, one in spirit, one in faith, united in God's love.

Come Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful,
enkindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit
and they shall be created.
And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, who instruct the hearts of the faithful
by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise,
and ever to rejoice in your consolation.
Through Christ, our Lord. Amen

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Years ago, a woman at daily Mass approached me in the communion procession. She had her arms crossed, indicating she wanted a blessing instead of the Sacred Host. She had tears in her eyes. I gave her a little blessing. She returned the next day. And the next. The same thing repeated. After a few weeks, I asked her why she didn't receive Holy Communion. She said she wasn't Catholic yet and was preparing to become so. I asked her why she wanted to be Catholic. She said, "Because I long to be in a real communion with Christ and with everyone I love." That, I submit, is a darn good reason. A few months later, she became Catholic and received the Body and Blood of Christ with unspeakably great joy and still does to this day.

Saint Paul says of the Eucharistic bread, "Is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" For Paul, the answer is obvious. Yes, it is exactly that. Which is why he can say, "we, though many, are one body." Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist. This is no magic trick, but a mystery of our salvation. He feeds us with the Sacrament of his body so that our communion with him — and with the other members of his body — is built up and becomes mature. That's why the Eucharist quenches our deep thirst for love and communion. The Body and Blood of Christ is the best reason to be Catholic. It's our participation of love in the one we love. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
Our life our sweetness and our hope.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve;

To thee do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in the valley of tears.

Turn then most gracious advocate,

Thine eyes of mercy towards us and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!
Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF ROCKHAMPTON

Prot: 23143:MMsp_0607

27 May 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

Greetings in this Easter season as the great feast of Pentecost approaches.

I welcome the arrival of our three new priests to the Diocese, Fathers Kingsley, Samuel and Raju. During these past few weeks, they have been settling into the pastoral ministry of the Diocese.

I write now to advise you of their appointments and the movement of clergy. I have made the following appointments:

- Fr Raju Mandothparambil – Associate Pastor to the Parishes of North Mackay and Farleigh
- Fr Samuel Okoroafor – Associate Pastor to the Parish of Rockhampton
- Fr Kingsley Ihuoma – Associate Pastor to the Parishes of the Central West

At the end of June, Father Peter Tonti begins holidays and will then take sabbatical leave until the end of 2023. I have appointed Father Alex Varghese as the acting Parish Priest of the Parish of Rockhampton during the time Father Peter is away.

Father Stephen Hanly is preparing to undertake further studies in Ireland at the Loreto Institute from September 2023 to June 2024. Father Stephen will leave the Parishes of North Mackay and Farleigh in early July and leave for Ireland towards the end of August. During the time until he departs, he will be residing in Rockhampton and is available for supply.

Yours sincerely

Most Rev Michael McCarthy
Bishop of Rockhampton

STEWARDSHIP DISCIPLES RESPONDING

As members of the Church, Jesus calls us to be disciples. Christian stewards respond in a particular way to the call of discipleship.

Stewardship is based on the understanding that all we have is gift from God. We show gratitude for these gifts by returning a portion of our time, talents, and treasure back to God.

- ❖ Information on the various ministries is available if you would like to know more.
- ❖ Indicate ✓ on this form in which ministry or ministries you are interested in.
- ❖ Complete ONE form per person and return it to the Parish Office or place in Collection Plate.
- ❖ There are opportunities for ALL ages.
- ❖ If you don't find a ministry you're interested in, consider other ways your talents could best help others in this parish.
- ❖ A ministry representative will contact you.
